Social members are not permitted guest at any time and limited to the applicable social member golf rules.

It is the responsibility of the hosting member that all guests adhere to Club policies including but not limited to; dress code, pace of play, respect for golf course / facilities, etc. Upon arrival guests are expected to check in through Guest Kiosk System (see below). Bags should be left at the Bag Drop or with Valet. Guests should process to the main lobby or the pro-shop to check into Guest Kiosk System. At no time are guests permitted to change clothes and or put their shoes on in the parking lot or in any place at the club other than the locker rooms.

The hosting member will register the guest through the Guest Kiosk system. Guests when arriving will check into the Guest Kiosk system, which will print a tag to be given to the Starter prior to teeing off. A guest may play a maximum of twice per month, regardless of who is hosting. Guest privilege is per membership not per "active" individual and as such maximum numbers are capped as outlined inclusive of primary, spouse and dependents. Guests arranged through the office must be coordinated with the Golf Pro. All guest fees are for 18 holes. Any exceptions requested by members to the guest rules must be submitted to the Golf Committee for review and approval a minimum of two (2) weeks prior to the event. There are no other exceptions to the policies stated above.
